About Us

Company Introduction

Dongguan Huayicai Landscape Technology Co., Ltd. is a professional manufacturer specializing in lantern festivals, park light shows, scenic night-tourism lighting, and large custom festive decorations. Under brands such as HOYECHI®, we integrate design, manufacturing, installation, and project support to provide customers with efficient one-stop solutions.

With our own factory and project experience, we offer free design services based on clients' venue information, dimensions, and theme ideas. For large or complex projects, we can also provide on-site installation support to help ensure smooth execution from concept to final setup.

In addition to custom production, we support flexible cooperation models for parks, scenic areas, commercial venues, and event organizers, including project supply, installation, and partnership-based operations. We are committed to helping clients create attractive, high-value lighting experiences for visitors.
