About Us

Company Introduction

Dongguan Huayicai Landscape Technology Co., Ltd. is a professional manufacturer specializing in lantern festivals, park light shows, night tourism lighting projects, and large-scale festive decorations.

Under the HOYECHI® brand, we integrate design, manufacturing, installation, and project support to provide one-stop solutions for parks, scenic areas, commercial venues, and event operators.

With our own factory and rich project experience, we offer customized design based on the client's venue size, site conditions, theme requirements, and budget. For large or complex projects, we can also provide on-site installation guidance to help ensure smooth execution from concept to final setup.

In addition to product manufacturing, we support flexible cooperation models, including direct purchase, customized projects, and venue partnership operations. Our goal is to help clients create attractive, high-value night tourism experiences for visitors.

With over 20 years of experience in the Christmas market since 2002.
